Clarke College Encyclopedia

Δ

Absences—failure to be at study hall; one rep.

Alumni—our predecessors still working for honor and glory of C. M. C. Allen—beater of Big Bass Drum,

Announcements—chapel exercises.

Annual—McNeese's hobby—collection of beautiful pictures.

April 1—Inter-Class field meet, when Seniors (†) win cup.
Athletics—Where Panthers shine.

D ...

Bachelor Button—Attractive and brave Bachelor—An unattached male over 21. Bachelor Club—An organized effort to fool the ladies.

Baldness—An affliction in bad repute at C. M. C.

Bone-To study frantically just before

Busted-Condition common to students and faculty.

Campus Course—A Ph. D. won by the Castor Oil—Beverage dispensed by Mrs. Spight.

Checks-Most welcome news from home.

College—A place to spend money. Commencement—When Seniors strut. Cook—Our good old Charlie.

Debates-Exercises for lung and brain development.

Dessert—Peaches on Sundays.
Diploma—The skin you love to touch.
Dormitories—Jails for each sex.

E

E-The mark that stands for excellent (?)

Education—Seldom found among jelly beans.

Examinations—Attempts by teachers to secure new and startling information.

Faculty—Human phonographs. Farr—A consumer of raisins. Firpo—Our football captain.

Gloom—After exams are over.
Goodbye—When I left the girl back home.

Hash—A little bit of everything.
Heat—A commodity greatly needed in C. M. C.

Homesickness—A most dreadful malady Heartbroken—Homesick and lonesome.

Indigestion—That after-Christmas feeling.Influence—What a few persons possess.Indignation—A tone of the preacher.

Jokes—Funny sayings—and Simpson. Juniors—The largest class in school.

Kitchen—A rendezvous for all. Knockers—With us always.

Lambrights—The bride and groom.
Latin—Dead but not forgotten.
Lectures—Natural gas.
Lobby—Where we wait for the ladies.

Mail—The daily (?) thrill.

Matriculation—Where our money goes.

Marriage—The dream of the bachelor and spinster.

Newton-A distant little village. Nut-What one fellow thinks the other is.

Office—The abode of authority. Oratory—The thunder of McNeese.

Pony-Ridden by many, but seen by few.

Professors—Biggest bluffs in school.

Quartette—Four famous warblers. Quizzes—Inquisitions.

Radiators—Local refrigerators.
Radio—The Barron invention.
Reports—They take the news to mother

Seniors—The dignified ones.
Shipped—Back to the corn field.
Sweetheart—The fortress of the hopeful.
Sharks—Those who star in psychology.

Tennis—Impossible to play without a racquet.

Tightwad—A person recembling Herman Keene.

Tobacco-Few doth buy, but many doth puff.

Uncle Sap-A famous athlete and editor of Annual.

Varsity—Survival of the fittest. Vocal Lessons—A commodity in expression.

Writtens—Impositions on good nature.
William—Wee, lonesome and lovesick.

Xmas-The time of your life.

Yells-All right, gang, on your feet-1, 2, 3.

Zero-The freezing point after examination.

Zip—A popular sweetening to be shunned by athletes.

Calendar

- Sept. 1-Coach Lambright and his bride arrive in Panther town.
- Sept. 3-Football men arrive for practice. Prospects good.
- Sept. 11—Students arrive on every train—many new specimens arrive, having fresh and verdant appearance.
- Sept. 12-School opens-Teachers given the once over.
- Sept. 16—First Sunday away from home. Dread disease—homesickness—invades school. Girls' dormitory becomes suddenly damp.
- Sept. 20-Cheer leaders elected. Splendid "pep" exhibited.
- Sept. 24—The question of the ages, "What society shall I join?" New members received in all societies.
- Sept. 26—All aboard for Jackson—Fite 'em Panthers! Panthers play Millsaps, losing, 6-0. The first drenching.
- Sept. 28-Annual drive starts. Buy souvenir for your grand children!
- Oct. 1-Cotton picking time-Earn money for an annual.
- Oct. 2-Defeat our ancient rivals, State Teachers' College, 32-0.
- Oct. 16-Chicken dinner-200 students enrolled.
- Oct. 16—"We'll show the sons of Poplarville." "Rat" Stuart welcomed back. Tie with his team, 0-0. Rain, rain!
- Oct 23-Yea, Panthers, you're all right! G. C. M. A. walloped, 51-0.
- Oct. 31-Witches and spooks abroad! And the goblins'll git you if you don't watch out! Phi Delta Kappas and Platonians entertain other students.
- Nov. 8-Panthers all dressed up. Blankets presented.
- Nov. 11—On to Meridian! Muzzle the pups! Panthers play A. & M. Reserves.

 Another scoreless tie. Downpour on return home in open trucks. "Hail, hail, the gang's all wet—what in the world do we care?"
- Nov. 20-M. C. Papooses defeat Panthers, 7-0.
- Nov. 26-Let us give thanks. Panthers again tie with Poplarville Aggies.
- Dec. 1-Burn that midnight oil!
- Dec. 5-First term's exams over-many casualties.
- Dec. 11-Football banquet-big success! Food, speeches, thrills!
- Dec. 18-"All on Account of Polly" presented by Aurelians and Euterpeans.
- Dec. 19-Y. W. A. Christmas Carol Service. Santa Claus comes to see Sunbeams.
- Dec. 20-Christmas Cantata by Choral Club.
- Dec. 22-Homeward bound! Hurrah for Santa Claus!
- Jan. 3-Back to jail for five months.
- Jan. 4—Girls begin sleeping on wedding cake. Oh, what will be our fate? Onic Mae draws the old maid.
- Jan. 11-Basket ball team goes to Bogalusa. Win two games over "Y."
- Jan. 15-Three o'clock in the morning. Annual going strong.
- Jan. 26—General Flu invades ranks; is repulsed by General Spight with her powerful aide, Colonel Castor Oil.
- Feb. 1—The missing links discovered! Baldheads appear. Epidemic of baldness prevented by Dr. McLaurin.
- Feb. 14-Will you be my Valentine?
- Feb. 15-16-Panthers lose one and win one from M. C. Freshmen basket ball team.
- Feb. 16-Junior play, "The Poor Married Man."
- Feb. 20-Bachelors stage annual banquet. Movies for the youngsters.
- Feb. 23-27—Examinations again!
- March 1-Good resolutions made! Good grades for third term.
- March 2-Mr. McLaurin deserts office for farm-spring has came.
- March 5-Woman's College Glee Club. Many male hearts a-flutter. McNeese struts.
- March 6-McNeese takes an early morning stroll-"We don't care if the rain do fall!"
- March 8-Annual goes to printer.

Couples?

Not Holding Hands?

Stick 'em upl

"Conkey"

"Sweet" mates

"Hold everything down"

Chaperone

Korn Fed

Happy Birthdayl

New

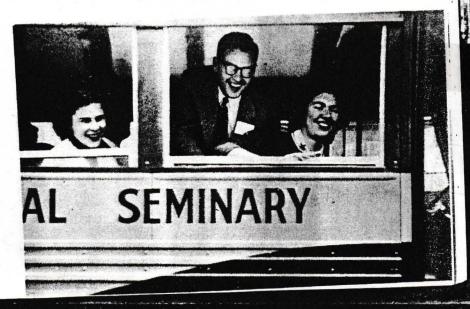

Take this please

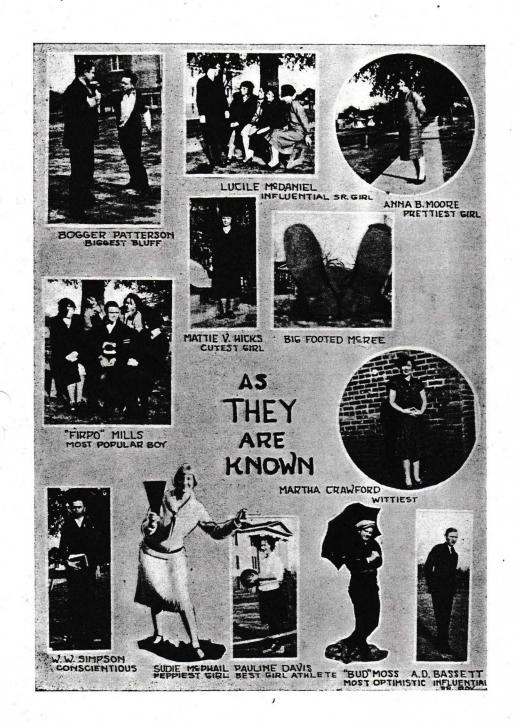

It's Sam again

Bound

-

